Dear Robert,

As I promised you, I hereby send you a small program for your visit to the Netherlands next Monday. My excuses for the late arrival of this mail, but these are just the details. I understood you already received your e-ticket and your travel information, as well as (from me) the general ideas about the visit.

PROGRAM

8.55u arrival at Schiphol airport, transfer to The Hague
10.00u meeting with the project manager of the remote voting project, drs Joost Beukers, and someone involved in the RIES-system (the system used in the waterboard elections, the basis for our Internetsystem for Dutch living abroad)
12.00 transfer to small restaurant for lunch
12.15 lunch
14.00 presentation by mgr Robert Krimmer on e-voting
14.45 short coffeebreak
15.00 discussion on e-voting and voting machines
15.45 end of the meeting, departure for Mauritshuis
16.00 guided tour in Mauritshuis
18.30 dinner in Scheveningen, afterwards return to hotel

I invited some other people to join the meetings, including some people from the Ministry of the Interior (mr Harke Heida, director of the Constitutional and Legislation Affairs department and his deputy, mr René Mazel, mr Diana van Driel and mr Leontine Loeber).

In the morning the main theme will be the voting system in the Netherlands (exchange of information). In the afternoon we would like to broaden the view to general topics related to e-voting, especially to possible future plans regarding introduction of Internet voting for general elections or a different regulation of the market for and the demands on voting machines. Relevant questions are "who should be responsible for the accountability of the systems, what is the best way to regulate the relations between government and market in this aspect, what is the best way to keep the trust of the Dutch people in the voting systems being used" etc. We would be glad if you could tell us about your ideas on these topics, either in your presentation, either in the discussion.

A car will bring you from the airport to your hotel and after your check-in to my office.

If you have the wish to contact me, you can do this by phone - [REDACTED] or e-mail [REDACTED] in the weekend, or this e-mail adress on Monday.

See you next Monday. I am looking forward to see you.

Kind regards

26-3-2008
