Dear Sir/madam,

It has been over two years now since our company spun-off from TNO to form TNO ITSEF BV, a separate company under TNO. As you can imagine the last two years have been not only very busy but also very successful.

Since our parent company TNO is also involved in security activities, we have jointly decided to change our company name in order to express more explicitly that we are a separate company and to avoid confusion.

We are proud to present our new name:

The Standard Conditions for Research Instructions given to TNO, as filed at the Registry of the District Court and the Chamber of Commerce in The Hague shall apply to all instructions given to TNO.

Within the next few weeks, we will incorporate our new name and logo into a new house style. We trust we will be able to continue our valued relationship as successfully as before.

Yours faithfully,
